Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On February 10, 2017, Red Robin Gourmet Burgers, Inc. (the “Company”) notified The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“NASDAQ”) that the Company had become aware of its noncompliance with NASDAQ Listing Rule 5605 (“Rule 5605”), which requires (i) that each compensation committee member must be an independent director and (ii) that independent directors must exercise oversight of the director nomination process, and that if such requirement is satisfied by having a nominations committee, then such committee must be comprised solely of independent directors.

Robert B. Aiken, a member of the Company’s board of directors (the “Board”), had been previously identified as an independent director and chaired the Company’s Compensation Committee and served on its Nominating and Governance Committee. In the course of its annual review of director independence in connection with the 2017 proxy season, the executive officers of the Company became aware that Mr. Aiken was not an independent director within the meaning of Rule 5605 because his brother-in-law is a current partner of KPMG LLP (“KPMG”), the Company’s outside auditor.

Upon discovering the foregoing, the Company promptly contacted Mr. Aiken, who then immediately resigned from the Compensation and Nominating and Governance Committees. Because the Company’s Compensation Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee each had four members prior to Mr. Aiken’s resignation, each of those Committees now consists solely of three independent directors. Accordingly, the Company has regained compliance with Rule 5605.

Rule 5605 also requires that a majority of the board be independent. Because all but one other member of the Company’s 10-person board are independent, the Company has had a majority of independent directors at all times since engaging KPMG as its outside auditor in March 2015, and will continue to be compliant going forward, even though Mr. Aiken has been deemed not independent.
