ITEM 8.01 Other Events.

On February 1, 2006, Red Robin Gourmet Burgers, Inc. (the "Company") received a notification of a formal order of investigation from the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The SEC investigation relates to the Company's previously announced internal investigation conducted by a special committee of its Board of Directors into the use of chartered aircraft and travel and entertainment expenses by the Company's former President and Chief Executive Officer. The Company notified the SEC of such internal investigation following its completion in August 2005. The SEC indicated in its order that there has been no determination made by the SEC as to whether the Company has in any way violated the law. The Company has cooperated with the SEC, and intends to continue to cooperate fully with the SEC in its formal investigation.

Separately, the Company announced in a press release that it recently has been served with a purported class action lawsuit, Huggett v. Red Robin International, Inc., in the Superior Court of the State of California, related to an alleged failure to comply with California wage and hour regulations, including those governing meal and rest periods, payment of wages upon termination and provision of itemized statements to employees, as well as unlawful business practices and unfair competition. The complaint states claims for damages, including punitive and exemplary damages, and injunctive relief. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to these claims and intends to defend the case vigorously. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
